

the relatives

The Relatives are:

Dennis LeBlanc - Guitar / Lead Vocals
Jason Arthur - Bass / Lead Vocals
Chris Cyga - Drums
David Ramirez - Lead Guitar / Vocals

Originating from the city of Orange in Orange County CA, The Relatives have released three CDs - two on Delirium Records, and their latest - "Tilted World" - on Slipped Disc Records. They have contributed to four compilation CDs, have had four of their songs appear on the Warner Home Video release, "The Utopian Society," which featured actress Malin Ackerman, and have shared the stage with such bands as The Smithereens, Dramarama, Missing Persons, Stroke 9, Alien Crime Syndicate, Stan Ridgway, Tommy Tutone, Animotion, Peter Case, Flock of Seagulls, Berlin, Gene Loves Jezebel, Soul Asylum, John Waite and Gin Blossoms. They were also featured as an up and coming band on an OC Weekly compilation CD.

The band started in 1999 when Jason Arthur answered Dennis LeBlanc's ad for "Bass Guitarist Wanted." Chris Cyga joined the band shortly thereafter and for several years, The Relatives rocked Orange, Riverside, and Los Angeles Counties as a power trio.

The group decided to augment their sound by bringing in another guitarist, so they recruited David Ramirez. David's soaring guitar leads and incredible tone have lifted The Relatives' sound to new heights.

Today, The Relatives continue to produce strong original material, and have just released (in 2015) their new album, "Tilted World," produced & engineered by James Oddo. Tilted World contains 13 new Relatives compositions encompassing straight ahead rock & power pop - take the ride!
